

Of Interest to WOMEN

DAILY THOUGHT

Of all the causes which compete to mind, Man's erring judgment and misguided ways are the most important. What the world needs now is strength of will. It is pride, the everlasting vice of fools.

Amen.

The District Federation. With continued pleasure awaiting the next district federation meeting, programs to open under most favorable auspices this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Avenue Hotel, Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

This afternoon session will be largely taken up with reports of committees, while the feature of the evening will be the reception of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole.

The program:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

Program: National Arts, 6A chorus from leading schools.

Invitation Dr. W. D. Andrews.

Appointment of resolutions committee.

Report of Executive committee.

Report of officers.

Greetings from state president Mrs. Edith M. Gaskins.

Greetings from各省.

Plan of work in E. Major Muskogee, Mrs. Walter Hill, etc.

Address of Dr. J. L. Jackson, etc.

Report of history committee Mrs. Gladys.

Reports of new clubs (three minutes).

Our girls Miss Ada Bharatwaher, Tulsa general secretary, V. W. C. A.

Report of press committee Mrs. F. E. Thurman.

Library war service, Miss Anna Reid, Muskogee.

Club activities (three minutes).

Adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

TUESDAY, 8 o'clock.

Reception in home of Mrs. James E. Cole.

For Visitor. Mrs. J. D. Wakley has invited a dozen matrons for an informal party Wednesday afternoon in her home to honor Mrs. Augusta Kilmer of Wellington, Ohio. The matrons all are old time friends of Mrs. Kilmer, who formerly lived in this city.

Drama League to Picnic. At the regular meeting of the drama league Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. P. W. Bauman, plans were made for the annual picnic Saturday, April 19, in Central park. Mrs. Murray D. Russell was named chairman of the general arrangement committee; Mrs. Harry Maxwell, chairman of programs; Mrs. J. C. Thompson, refreshments; Mrs. Howard McAlpin, table; Mrs. O. L. Frost, music.

The invitations for the affair are to the members, their families and friends.

Reception.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole will be opened this evening in a reception honoring the president and officers of the District Federation, who come today for the three days' session.

Husbands and escorts of the women have been included in the invitation and these will be welcomed as well as visiting delegates and members of all federated clubs.

Party Series. Mrs. Walter M. Mount will entertain at luncheon Thursday in her home in the first of a series of parties which she will give during the spring season. The affair is planned to coincide with the return of Mrs. Anna Meeks of Oil City, who arrived today on route home after the winter in California.

The District Federation. With continued pleasure awaiting the next district federation meeting, programs to open under most favorable auspices this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Avenue Hotel, Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

This afternoon session will be largely taken up with reports of committees, while the feature of the evening will be the reception of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole.

The program:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

Program: National Arts, 6A chorus from leading schools.

Invitation Dr. W. D. Andrews.

Appointment of resolutions committee.

Report of Executive committee.

Report of officers.

Greetings from state president Mrs. Edith M. Gaskins.

Greetings from各省.

Plan of work in E. Major Muskogee, Mrs. Walter Hill, etc.

Address of Dr. J. L. Jackson, etc.

Report of history committee Mrs. Gladys.

Reports of new clubs (three minutes).

Our girls Miss Ada Bharatwaher, Tulsa general secretary, V. W. C. A.

Report of press committee Mrs. F. E. Thurman.

Library war service, Miss Anna Reid, Muskogee.

Club activities (three minutes).

Adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

TUESDAY, 8 o'clock.

Reception in home of Mrs. James E. Cole.

For Visitor. Mrs. J. D. Wakley has invited a dozen matrons for an informal party Wednesday afternoon in her home to honor Mrs. Augusta Kilmer of Wellington, Ohio. The matrons all are old time friends of Mrs. Kilmer, who formerly lived in this city.

Postponement.

The meeting of the Tuesday Book club announced for today with Mrs. E. T. Brown as hostess, has been postponed one week on account of the federation.

Mr. Arthur Nevin Lecture. One of the outstanding features of the Third District Federation meeting, which opens in Boston Avenue M. E. church, today is the Arthur Nevin lecture at which Thaddeus H. Nevin, author of "The War That Never Was," will speak.

Not only is he well known as the brother of the beloved composer Elbert Nevin, but on account of his success in musical extension and during the past two years by his attained recognition through his service in the army. For almost two years he was stationed at Camp Grant, Illinois, as a private, and he was particularly successful in this work. He is bringing to Tulsa a message which no one leastwise the lover of good music, will want to miss. This lecture is free and is open not only to club-women but to any one who may be interested.

Mr. Nevin will be presented to the federation as a compliment of the Muskogee club whose guest he will be while in this city.

Drama League to Picnic.

At the regular meeting of the drama league Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. P. W. Bauman, plans were made for the annual picnic Saturday, April 19, in Central park. Mrs. Murray D. Russell was named chairman of the general arrangement committee; Mrs. Harry Maxwell, chairman of programs; Mrs. J. C. Thompson, refreshments; Mrs. Howard McAlpin, table; Mrs. O. L. Frost, music.

The invitations for the affair are to the members, their families and friends.

Reception.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole will be opened this evening in a reception honoring the president and officers of the District Federation, who come today for the three days' session.

Husbands and escorts of the women have been included in the invitation and these will be welcomed as well as visiting delegates and members of all federated clubs.

Party Series.

Mrs. Walter M. Mount will entertain at luncheon Thursday in her home in the first of a series of parties which she will give during the spring season. The affair is planned to coincide with the return of Mrs. Anna Meeks of Oil City, who arrived today on route home after the winter in California.

Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Margish were entertained a few weeks ago with a week end visit to Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Lind, are preparing a week-end visit to her sister, Mrs. Anna H. Stiles.

Woman of the Arkansas club will be honored at a tea Friday afternoon, April 11, in the home of Mrs. Harry Campbell.

Mrs. H. H. Glasson has returned to her home in Tulsa, Okla., after a winter visit to her daughter, Miss John H. MacKinnon Jr., and Mr. MacKinnon.

Mrs. Cornelia French, former member of the N. W. M. S. of P. F. C. Christian church, had returned for the regular meeting.

A Son.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cole announced the birth April 6 of a son, who is to bear the name of George, Jr.

Report of history committee Mrs. Gladys.

Reports of new clubs (three minutes).

Our girls Miss Ada Bharatwaher, Tulsa general secretary, V. W. C. A.

Report of press committee Mrs. F. E. Thurman.

Library war service, Miss Anna Reid, Muskogee.

Club activities (three minutes).

Adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

TUESDAY, 8 o'clock.

Reception in home of Mrs. James E. Cole.

For Visitor. Mrs. J. D. Wakley has invited a dozen matrons for an informal party Wednesday afternoon in her home to honor Mrs. Augusta Kilmer of Wellington, Ohio. The matrons all are old time friends of Mrs. Kilmer, who formerly lived in this city.

Postponement.

The meeting of the Tuesday Book club announced for today with Mrs. E. T. Brown as hostess, has been postponed one week on account of the federation.

Mr. Arthur Nevin Lecture.

One of the outstanding features of the Third District Federation meeting, which opens in Boston Avenue M. E. church, today is the Arthur Nevin lecture at which Thaddeus H. Nevin, author of "The War That Never Was," will speak.

Not only is he well known as the brother of the beloved composer Elbert Nevin, but on account of his success in musical extension and during the past two years by his attained recognition through his service in the army. For almost two years he was stationed at Camp Grant, Illinois, as a private, and he was particularly successful in this work. He is bringing to Tulsa a message which no one leastwise the lover of good music, will want to miss. This lecture is free and is open not only to club-women but to any one who may be interested.

Mr. Nevin will be presented to the federation as a compliment of the Muskogee club whose guest he will be while in this city.

Drama League to Picnic.

At the regular meeting of the drama league Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. P. W. Bauman, plans were made for the annual picnic Saturday, April 19, in Central park. Mrs. Murray D. Russell was named chairman of the general arrangement committee; Mrs. Harry Maxwell, chairman of programs; Mrs. J. C. Thompson, refreshments; Mrs. Howard McAlpin, table; Mrs. O. L. Frost, music.

The invitations for the affair are to the members, their families and friends.

Reception.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole will be opened this evening in a reception honoring the president and officers of the District Federation, who come today for the three days' session.

Husbands and escorts of the women have been included in the invitation and these will be welcomed as well as visiting delegates and members of all federated clubs.

Party Series.

Mrs. Walter M. Mount will entertain at luncheon Thursday in her home in the first of a series of parties which she will give during the spring season. The affair is planned to coincide with the return of Mrs. Anna Meeks of Oil City, who arrived today on route home after the winter in California.

The District Federation.

With continued pleasure awaiting the next district federation meeting, programs to open under most favorable auspices this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Avenue Hotel, Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

This afternoon session will be largely taken up with reports of committees, while the feature of the evening will be the reception of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cole.

The program:

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Walter Hill presiding.

Program: National Arts, 6A chorus from leading schools.

Invitation Dr. W. D. Andrews.

Appointment of resolutions committee.

Report of Executive committee.

Report of officers.

Greetings from各省.

Plan of work in E. Major Muskogee, Mrs. Walter Hill, etc.

Address of Dr. J. L. Jackson, etc.

Report of history committee Mrs. Gladys.

Reports of new clubs (three minutes).

Our girls Miss Ada Bharatwaher, Tulsa general secretary, V. W. C. A.

Report of press committee Mrs. F. E. Thurman.

Library war service, Miss Anna Reid, Muskogee.

Club activities (three minutes).

Adjournment.

TUESDAY EVENING.

TUESDAY, 8 o'clock.

Reception in home of Mrs. James E. Cole.

For Visitor. Mrs. J. D. Wakley has invited a dozen matrons for an informal party Wednesday afternoon in her home to honor Mrs. Augusta Kilmer of Wellington, Ohio. The matrons all are old time friends of Mrs. Kilmer, who formerly lived in this city.

Postponement.

The meeting of the Tuesday Book club announced for today with Mrs. E. T. Brown as hostess, has been postponed one week on account of the federation.

Mr. Arthur Nevin Lecture.

One of the outstanding features of the Third District Federation meeting, which opens in Boston Avenue M. E. church, today is the Arthur Nevin lecture at which Thaddeus H. Nevin, author of "The War That Never Was," will speak.

Not only is he well known as the brother of the beloved composer Elbert Nevin, but on account of his success in musical extension and during the past two years by his attained recognition through his service in the army. For almost two years he was stationed at Camp Grant, Illinois, as a private, and he was particularly successful in this work. He is bringing to Tulsa a message which no one leastwise the lover of good music, will want to miss. This lecture is free and is open not only to club-women but to any one who may be interested.

Mr. Nevin will be presented to the federation as a compliment of the Muskogee club whose guest he will be while in this city.

Drama League to Picnic.

At the regular meeting of the drama league Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. P. W. Bauman